June classes are also listed below for your review. Registration for these classes will open in a few weeks. Registration forms for June classes will be made available at that time.

❖ March

"Patrol Interdiction", March 24-26, 2009

This class is now full-Registrations can be submitted for the Wait List. If seating becomes available registrants will be offered the seats in the order of when their registration was received.

❖ April

“Undercover Operations”, April 8-9, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course will provide curriculum regarding drug interception investigative techniques in an undercover setting for narcotic investigators in the field. The course discusses multijurisdictional standards and techniques utilized by investigators in undercover counterdrug operations. The attendee learns the skills utilized in advanced undercover roles while performing multijurisdictional task force operations.

Registration is now open! This is a very popular class and seats fill up fast. Please forward you registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

“Conspiracy Investigations”, April 27-29, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL., in partnership with the Florida National Guard. Conspiracies involving the activities of complex drug organizations with numerous individuals and a variety of crimes are inherently difficult to investigate and successfully prosecute. The goal of this course is to familiarize the investigator with the basics of what it takes to conduct conspiracy investigations from start to finish and to ensure prosecution and conviction of conspirators. Registration for this class is now open. Please forward you registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

❖ May

“Courtroom Testimony”, May 6-7, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course will focus on training drug officers to articulate facts in a courtroom or deposition setting in a professional and accurate manner as a means to successful prosecution. Topics of the course will encompass documentation; pre-trial meetings, depositions, and preliminary hearings; types of court cases; types of examination; courtroom demeanor and attire; testifying; defense tactics in the courtroom; witness credibility; experience documentation, and a mock trial practical exercise using counterdrug scenarios. Registration for this class is now open. Please forward you registration form as soon as possible to ensure your seat in this class.

❖ June

“Analytical Investigative Techniques-Overview”, June 8-10, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course is designed to teach very basic investigative analysis techniques using drug-related data. The classroom presentation will include instruction on techniques used in the investigative analysis of a narcotics case. By the completion of the course, you will understand the processes and techniques used by analysts for investigations. You will also be able to analyze and summarize case data in a clear, concise and graphical format. This course is designed for law enforcement personnel with NO analytical experience who wish to learn and understand basic investigative analytical techniques. Registration for this class will open in April.

“Highway Vehicle Stops & the Drug Trafficker”, June 17-19, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course will provide instruction to law enforcement officers on highway traffic stops of suspected drug couriers and users. It is the goal of this course to provide these techniques to lead to the safe discovery of illegal contraband and ultimately, a successful prosecution. This course will include practical exercises for interviewing techniques and vehicle searches on cars, small trucks and commercial tractor trailers. Registration for this class will open in April.

“Supervising Counterdrug Operations”, June 22-24, 2009

Sponsored by the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training, St. Petersburg, FL, in partnership with the Florida National Guard. This course is designed for law enforcement officers who are drug unit commanders or supervisors of drug investigation initiatives. The primary focus of this course is to provide the basic knowledge and skills necessary to develop an increased appreciation of managerial resources used in counterdrug operations and an understanding of how to select, train and lead officers conducting counterdrug missions. Task force organization and management, the restrictions upon task force operations, selection and training of personnel, and related risk assessment and mitigation are highlighted. Presentations are enhanced via several simulations, practical exercises, and an open forum that allows for interactions designed to expose real-life situations. Registration for this class will open in April.

Please pass this email on to your state and local agencies.

Thank you
